$100,000 Stakes winners for Trixton, Lucky Chucky

TRIXTON and LUCKY CHUCKY, both members of the Stallions Australasia sire roster, were represented by winners of $100,000 Finals of the Massachusetts Sire Stakes at Plainridge Park on Tuesday (October 30).

TRIXTON'S two-year-old daughter Taylor Swiftly led for the last half-mile before winning by open lengths in 1:58.2. Out of a Valley Victory mare, the filly has won five races and $151,175 in stakes.

While, Kinda Lucky Lindy, a LUCKY CHUCKY three-year-old colt, led most of the way and was untroubled to win by three lengths in 1:58.8. From a mare by Crazyed, the colt has won five times this year for $114,284. He has lifetime earnings of $211,638.

Trixtion now third on trotting sires' list

TRIXTON, whose first crop is racing in North America this year, has jumped into third position on the US two-year-old trotting sires' money-winning list.

His stock has earned over $1.8million and he is behind only his own sire MUSCLE HILL and Chapter Seven on the table.

TRIXTON is the sire of six $100,000 winners to date led by the star fillies Princess Deo ($289,421) and Evident Beauty ($248,192), who finished second and third respectively in the $490,000 Goldsmith Maid at The Meadowlands on November 24.

Incredibly, no less than 54 of TRIXTON's first foal crop of 82 has raced and 33 have taken winning records with 27 in 2:00 and three in 1:55 or better.
