Lucky Chucky dominates New York Sire Stakes

Lucky Chucky, the 2010 USA Trotter of the Year, notched up four wins and several placings with his first crop of three-year-olds in the New York Sire Stakes at Vernon Downs last weekend.

The Lucky Chucky's won four of 10 Sires races winning two Excelsior B races in 1:59.4 and 1:58.6, an Excelsior A race in 1:55.6 and an Open in 1:54.6.

Lucky Chucky is a Top Ten sire of three-year-olds and with his stature and ability is likely to continue working his way up the sire ranks.

It was also a great day for another Stallions Australasia sire

Wishing Stone who is standing its first full stud season in 2015.

Wishing Stone's sire Conway Hall was the other dominant sire on the day and between Lucky Chucky and Conway Hall they sired the winners of nine of the 10 NYSS races on the day!
